

Nomination Ballot for the NH Animal Rights League Board of Directors

NHARL biennial elections are coming this November. NHARL members may nominate themselves or other members to serve on the NHARL Board of Directors for two years, beginning in Nov of 2019. You may nominate up to seven people. They must be members of NHARL, and self-nominations are permitted. If you have questions about being on the board or about the election, contact nhanimalrightsleague@gmail.com

Nominees will be asked to accept or decline their nomination by the NHARL Election Assistant, Ruth Tanner Isaks, an NHARL member. The election assistant will contact each nominee to ask if they accept their nomination.

The election ballot will be in the October newsletter. Votes will be counted at the annual meeting in November and the results announced. The nominees receiving the most votes will constitute the Board of Directors for the next two years and will begin serving in November.
